

Communism is a philosophical, social, political, economic ideology and movement whose ultimate goal is the establishment of a communist society, namely a socio-economic order structured upon the ideas of common ownership of the means of production and the absence of social classes, money and the state.

Communism includes a variety of schools of thoughts which include Marxism and anarcho-communism as well as the political ideologies grouped around both. All of which share the analysis that the current order of society stems from capitalism, its economic system and mode of production, namely that in this system there are two major classes; conflict between these two classes is the root of all problems in society and this situation can only be resolved through a social revolution.
